STA TE SOCIETY.

EUREKA.

Mrs. Pat Shea is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Pat O'Hara has been quite ill at her residence here, but her health is improving.

Albert McClellan, city recorder of Payson and editor of the Payson Globe-Header, was a Eureka visitor today.

Captain H. L. Sowles has returned to Eureka and expects to remain for some little time.

Mrs. Swartz, wife of the proprietor of the Oxford cafe, is here on a visit to her husband. Mrs. Swartz's home is in the capital.

Next Thursday the Ladies' Aid society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Walter Thompson.

Mrs. Frank McElhannon visited friends at Payson this week.

Mrs. Nicholas Weiser, Ida, who has been visiting her relatives in this city, returned to her home last Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Counterman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Helmick of Salt Lake, is at present visiting her parents in that city.

Con J. Hannifin was a Salt Lake visitor Wednesday, preparatory to making a trip into Nevada.

Edmund Sanderson, formerly mayor of Gunnison, Utah, and a brother of Mrs. Dan Martin of this place, is visiting here. Mrs. Martin has been ill this week and was unable to attend the funeral.

William Price, a resident of this place, was looking up his old friends here last Sunday.

R. J. Spillman, formerly editor of the Tintie Miner, visited Eureka this week to say good-bye to his friends. Mr. Spillman intends to go to the country of his new business in Nevada, and his many friends will give him their best wishes on parting.

E. J. White of Kanab, Utah, a former business man at Kanab, is visiting his home last Wednesday after a brief visit to his friends in this city.

Mrs. W. C. Andrews, wife of former County Clerk Andrews, is visiting her husband. She will return to Nephi Sunday.

The Eureka Union band, in conjunction with the L. D. S. choir, will give a grand concert at the church on March 27 for the benefit of the first-named organization. The band expects to turn out in white duck uniforms this summer. It is a very efficient body and the citizens of the town are proud of it.

There have been quite a number of delightful entertainments among the different secret societies. Last Sunday evening the Elks started the ball rolling by giving an impromptu entertainment in honor of Mr. Watson M. Nesbit, who was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Kirk Snoot in Robinson. Mr. Watson came over to Eureka in the evening and was promptly taken in charge of his brothers of the B. P. O. E., and a local time was had.

The local order of the Modern Woodmen of America held a social at the Elks' hall, the occasion being the initiation of several new members.

The dance given by the Knights of Robert Emmet at the Odd Fellows' hall tonight was a great success. There was an exceedingly large crowd of dancers present and they are enjoying themselves greatly.

Thursday night was the occasion of a surprise party on the Elks by their wives and sweethearts. A smoker had been planned, but the fair sex put a perceptible stop to that and treated the members of Tintie lodge No. 711 to one of the most enjoyable surprises they have as yet experienced since their inception. Card playing and music helped to pass the evening away and an excellent lunch was served.

BINGHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fitzpatrick and Mr. Harris of Salt Lake were guests of Mrs. Annie McGuire Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cole left Tuesday for Nevada, where they will visit their daughter, Mr. Cole will look after mining interests in the goldfield district and vicinity. They will be absent about two months.

The tea given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oscar Christensen by the Ladies' Relief society was attended by a large circle of patrons and friends, and the afternoon netted a neat little sum to the society's treasury.

Mrs. W. O. Carbis, Mrs. Albert Napper and Mrs. L. E. Sanderson of Salt Lake were guests of Mrs. Jack Forbes, first of the week.

C. H. Gabrielson, Charlie Fimmel, R. L. Herriek, Frank Beutson, Gene Berling, Sam Dunsmore, Harry Brownlee, Gus Erickson, Henry Berlin, Michael Morrissey, Alexander and Charles Eldard, the degree team of the Red Men, were Ogdens visitors Wednesday in the interest of the order.
